Disclaimer

Participating in this crowdfunding campaign is a contribution towards AI algorithms development and testing by EndoTech through a Decentralized Autonomous Organization (DAO) and the use of smart contracts on public blockchain. The smart contracts have been independently audited and verified. Crowdfunding campaign contributors shall receive staking rewards resulted from AI algorithms activity, as well as equity in EndoTech. Prior to Endotech equity distribution, each contributor shall be required to go through KYC and AML verification. EndoTech is preparing for public listing, should EndoTech not go ahead with listing, the equity allocated for crowdfunding participants shall be converted into dividends for each contributor.

Past performance does not guarantee future results and is for informational purposes only. Historical performances shown are also the result of compounding profits. The rewards are contingent upon AI performance and results are not a guarantee. All performance shall be visible with full transparency to each crowdfunding contributor.

Equity Crowd Funding Model

- Allows people to contribute to the development of Endotech's trading AI and receive profit rewards and equity.
- There are 2 contribution categories, Crypto AI and Forex AI
- There are 10 contribution tiers for each category, beginning with Tier 1 at 100 usdt, and each tier doubling.
- 70% of Tiers 3-10 and 50% of Tiers 1 and 2 are used in live trading for the purpose of testing and development.
- 70% of all trading profits are rewarded to the contributor, 15% to the community rewards, and 15% to operations.
- Every contributor from Tiers 2-10 is also rewarded with their share of 5% equity in Endotech prior to going public.
